[ VERSE 1 ]   G                       C9          D
            O wor-ship the King, all glo-rious a-bove,
                G                               D   G
            And grate-ful-ly sing His won-der-ful love;
                D                                       D7
            Our Shield and De-fen-der, the An-cient of Days,
               G                                   D    G
            Pa-vil-ioned in splen-dor, and gird-ed with praise.

[ VERSE 2 ]   G                     C9          D
            O tell of His might, O sing of His grace,
                  G                               D  G
            Whose robe is the light, whose can-o-py space!
                D                                           D7
            His char-iots of wrath the deep thun-der-clouds form,
                G                                   D   G
            And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

[ VERSE 3 ]     G                      C9            D
            Thy boun-ti-ful care what tongue can re-cite?
               G                                 D   G
            It breathes in the air, it shine in the light;
               D                                         D7
            It streams from the hills, it de-scends to the plain,
                G                                   D   G
            And sweet-ly dis-tills in the dew and the rain.

[ VERSE 4 ]       G                      C9         D
            Frail chil-dren of dust, and fee-ble as frail,
               G                                 D  G
            In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail:
                D                                     D7
            Thy mer-cies how ten-der, how firm to the end;
                G                                 D   G
            Our Ma-ker, De-fend-er, Re-deem-er, and Friend!
