I will sing to thee. With wis- dom in a per- fect way shall thou be pleas'd to come? I with a per- fect heart will walk with-fore mine eyes to be: I hate their work that turn a- side, it part quite from me shall; A per- son giv'n to wick- ed- ness I neigh- bor pri- vi- ly: The haught- y heart I will not bear, nor eyes shall be, that they May dwell with me: he shall me serve that my house shall not dwell; And in my pre- sence shall he not rely de- stroy will I; All from God's ci- ty to cut off that
