The Lord our God is mer- ci- ful, and he is gra- - cious,
He will not chide con- ti- nual- ly, nor keep his an- ger still.
For as the heav- en in its height the earth sur- mount- eth far:
As far as east is dis- tant from the west, so far hath he

Long- suf- fer- ing, and slow to wrath, in mer- cy plen- te- ous.
With us he dealt not as we sinn'd, nor did re- quite our ill.
So great to those that do him fear his ten- der mer- cies are:
From us re- mov- ed, in his love, all our in- i- qui- ty. A- men
